The Rector Writes.....

An American decided to write a book about famous churches around the world, so he bought a plane ticket and took a trip to Rome. On his first day he was inside a church taking photographs when he noticed a golden telephone mounted on the wall with a sign that read '€100,000 per call'. The American asked a priest who was passing what the telephone was used for. The priest replied that it was a direct line to heaven and for €100,000 you could talk to God. The American's next stop was in Moscow. There, at a very large cathedral, he saw the same golden telephone with a similar sign that this was a direct line to heaven and that for a similarly large amount of money he could make a call directly to God.

The American travelled on to Israel, Germany, Brazil,..... Everywhere he saw the same golden telephone with the equivalent of €100,000 per call sign. The American's final destination was here in the UK where he went to York Minster. There was the same golden telephone, but this time the sign under it read '50p per call.' The American was surprised so he asked the priest about the sign. 'Reverend, I've travelled all over World and I've seen this same golden telephone in many churches. I'm told that it is a direct line to Heaven, but everywhere I went the price was the equivalent of €100,000 per call. Why is it so cheap here?' The priest smiled and answered, 'You're in Yorkshire now, - it's only a local call'.

This joke is, of course, a play on the idea that Yorkshire is God's own country but it expresses a truth about prayer. We do not need to travel somewhere special, spend lots of money, make elaborate preparations or spend vast amounts of time and energy to contact God. Prayer is simply talking to God, which can be done anywhere and in a huge variety of ways. Prayer is akin to a local telephone call or sitting chatting to a friend or going for a walk with them. And yet we all find prayer difficult. We think we don't know how to pray, or that we are not very good at it. We worry about how we should pray and what we should pray about. The number of books about prayer is testament to what a complex and difficult subject this is – and a little later in the magazine you can read a Book Review by Walter Gibson one of our St John's congregation, about one of the most recently published.

All of this is why our Lent groups this month will focus on prayer (full details on pages 8 and 9). For each of the first four weeks we will look at various ways and forms of praying and then, for the final week (Wednesday 1st April), we will use St Helen's for an Open Church session. For this session I have put together a total of 22 different ways to pray and these will be available in the church for people to explore and try. It is so tempting to talk about prayer or read about prayer but there is no substitute for actually praying. I hope that this opportunity will introduce you to all sorts of new ideas and ways in which you can pray and deepen your relationship with God.

The Poet George Herbert called prayer: “God’s breath in man returning to his birth, the soul in paraphrase, heart in pilgrimage”. Lent is traditionally a period of pilgrimage - a time to reflect upon our relationship with God and try, metaphorically, to draw closer to Him. I hope that this year as we journey together in worship and prayer that each of us will discover with rich new meaning how close God is to us, waiting for us to open our hearts to him

With every blessing

Georgina

From the Parish Bookshelf:-

As mentioned by Georgina above and in line with the prayer theme being studied by of one of the Lent groups, Walter Gibson offers his review of a book entitled ‘How to Pray’ by Pete Greig. “How to Pray” by Pete Greig.

This new book on prayer, kindly lent by the Rector, is sub-titled “a simple guide for normal people”, which is what attracted me to it! And indeed it is very readable and full of suggestions on how we can pray more and pray differently – if like me you feel that your prayers have got a bit stuck in a rut then this will give you ideas for different approaches. The author pours into this book a lifetime of experience in praying and helping others to pray. It has many wonderful examples of how prayer can lead us, guide our actions, help others and come closer to God. Pete Greig set up the 24/7 non-stop prayer movement which has spread around the world so he is an authoritative voice on this subject.

The chapters in the book are structured around the Lord’s Prayer and follow the acronym P.R.A.Y – Pause, Rejoice, Ask, Yield.

In each chapter there is practical guidance supported by scripture and illustrated by stories and examples, mainly from his own life and often deeply moving and personal. At the end of each chapter he describes a “Hero” of that particular kind of prayer, someone, often an ordinary person, who brought about real and lasting change in the world around them. (continued overleaf)

These examples are really inspiring. Someone like Susanna Wesley, the “Mother of Methodism”, who had a very tough life but persevered in prayer for her children, two of whom went on to have a huge impact through evangelism and hymn-writing.

The author’s humility and honesty makes it easy to relate to his writing, and while he challenges us to greater efforts he also offers reassurance when things get difficult. It opens lots of doors for us into a wider world of prayer and encouragement to step through them.

LENT COURSES AND LENT LUNCHES 2020

During Lent we are getting together with our friends at the Baptist/Methodist Chapel to hold a weekly series of Lent Courses.

As is customary there will be two groups in 2020.

One group will meet on Wednesday mornings and will be on the subject of:-

'Prayer'.

So many people struggle or have questions about prayer that, rather than use a set course, for our Lent Groups this year I have put together a series looking at prayer. Although these will be stand-alone sessions each will inform and enrich the others. This year the sessions will be held on Wednesday mornings beginning at 10:45am for up to an hour and a half. After the first four sessions and for those who wish to stay a simple lunch will be served. The fifth session will take place in church and will not be followed by lunch.

These sessions will be on Wednesdays at 10:45am (not as might have been previously stated 11:45) written and led by Revd. Georgina at the following venues:

March 4th : Bill & Rosie Spiegelberg at Oulton Park House, Tarporley, CW6 9BL

Who Do We Pray To and Why Do We Pray?

March 11th : Phillip & Becky Posnett at Haughton Hall, Tarporley, CW6 9RH

Prayer in the Old Testament

March 18th : Tom & Beryl Kenny at No 1 Brookfield Close, Tarporley, CW6 9HG

Prayer in the New Testament

March 25th :Alastair & Henrietta Findlay, High Billinge House, Utkinton,CW6 0LA

Set Prayers and Prayers of the Saints

April 1st : St Helen's Church - No meal

Open Questions and Praying Different Ways

At this session there will be 22 practical ways of praying laid out in the church ready to for people to explore as they wish. The Revs Georgina and Julian will be available to answer any questions.

If you cannot make this group why not join the one on Thursdays at 8.00pm. This 'Thursday group' will be hosted by Catherine & Richard Line at 2 Orchard Gardens, Tarporley, CW6 9GR .

All are welcome on the following Thursday evenings at 8pm:-

March 5th ,12th ,19th ,26th and April 2nd

On Maundy Thursday 9th April there will be a Passover meal at the Tarporley Baptist/Methodist Chapel at 8.00pm.

The theme for this Thursday evening group will be:- 'Jesus in the Gospel of John'

The groups provide an informal way of learning together, and of making friends. If you haven't come before, why not try it? No one is ever 'put on the spot' and you can participate as much or as little as you want. The groups are open to all – a warm welcome awaits you. Each session is stand-alone so even if you can only make one or two sessions please come!

Georgina

REVISION OF OUR ELECTORAL ROLL is taking place between 9th February and 22nd March.

The Electoral Roll of the Church is different to the local government electoral roll that entitles us to vote in political elections. The Electoral Roll of our church is a list of people who consider themselves to be members of one of our three churches. So if you are not already on the Roll and come to St Helen's, St Thomas' or St John's, even if it is not perhaps as often as you would like, please do add your name to our Roll by completing a form. And if you have attended in the past but are now housebound you are still very much part of our community so please do ask for and complete a form. Everyone is welcome and forms are completed by each individual - although you do have to be over 16 and baptised! You can be on more than one church electoral roll. If you have any other questions don't hesitate to ask.

The forms are available at the back of our churches or via our website. As a member of our community please complete the form with all the information and return to the Electoral Roll Officer Mike Kiddle or the Rector.

We do want our electoral roll to be an accurate depiction of our community so would be very grateful if you would take the time to complete a form and return it before the end of March.

World of Prayer Service: Friday 6th March 2020, St. Helen's Church, Tarporley at 7.30p.m

This year the service has been prepared by the women of Zimbabwe and they encourage us all to reflect on the difficulties and unrest that have plagued their country over many years. They encourage us to 'Rise, take up your mat and walk' with them as they continue their often turbulent journey towards reconciliation.

The Day of Prayer is celebrated in over 170 countries it begins in Samoa and finishes in American Samoa more than 36 hours later. Please join us, refreshments will be served following the service. All are welcome.

The winners of the February 200+ club draw are:

First Prize	£100	No. 15	– Mrs D Lilley
Second Prize	£20	No. 127	– Mrs E Cheshire
Third Prize	£10	No. 109	– Mr P Jones

The 200+ Club is a fun and simple way of raising funds for St Helen's. Each month on the second Sunday a draw is made and prizes of £100, £20 and £10 are given. It costs only £1 to have your number in each monthly draw (an annual subscription of £12). The proceeds, after the prizes are allocated, go to maintain the fabric of the Parish Church.

Diocesan News.

Bishop Announces Details of Safeguarding Review

Work is underway in the Diocese of Chester into Past Cases Review 2(PCR2), a new national past cases review into the handling of safeguarding files in the Church. PCR2 has a key focus of listening to survivors who want to come forward. PCR2 follows on from an earlier review in 2007 and is part of the Church's ongoing scrutiny of its handling of past and current safeguarding cases. The Bishop of Birkenhead, Keith Sinclair, announced details of PCR2 in a letter to all parishes on Monday 27 January, in which he outlined what parishes are required to do. Bishop Keith, who leads on safeguarding in the Diocese of Chester says: "We want to ensure that all of our worshipping communities and church-related activities are as safe as possible for children and vulnerable adults. All dioceses have been asked to undertake and participate in this new review process which is known nationally as PCR2. "It is important that all known cases of concern about the behaviour of clergy and church officers towards children and vulnerable adults have been considered and dealt with appropriately." All information that is shared as part of PCR2 will be reviewed by an Independent Reviewer and appropriate action will be taken. All parishes are required to respond to PCR2, which is commissioned by the Church of England and is being carried out in order to make our churches safer for everyone.

Listening to survivors: Individuals who wish to make representations to the PCR2 process, or who need to come forward with information or make any disclosures regarding church-related abuse, are encouraged to make direct contact at any time with the Diocesan Safeguarding Adviser, Pauline Butterfield, on 07703 800031, or call the dedicated telephone helpline -0800 80 20 20 - operated independently from the Church, by the NSPCC. Further information can be found on the diocesan website: www.chester.anglican.org/pcr2

Chester Diocese and Agriculture.

The 'Chester Diocesan News' Magazine.

The CDN magazine, which is issued every month, is available at the back of all three of our Churches detailing news and events of a diocesan nature. Included in the March issue are articles on the return of the 'Passion' to the streets of Chester on Good Friday, April 10th, a comparison between cathedrals and community/parish churches, observing Lent and some forthcoming events.
