The Rector Writes.....

As I write this we are all uncertain as to how our lives will be affected by Covid-19.

It presents health, logistical and financial implications for us all and threatens lives and livelihoods. Following Government and Church of England guidance, it is with great sadness that we are now longer able to hold Public Worship in our three Churches in the Parish until further notice. It will be a very strange Easter indeed not to be celebrating in Church. We must remember however, that there were no services on that very first Easter Day. Jesus was none the less risen, alive and present. So it will be this year.

We will continue to worship, even whilst we are apart. Every week I will endeavour to update our website (<http://www.tarporleyparishchurch.org/>) with the Sunday Readings, sermon and prayers that we can share together. I can also email this to anyone on request and if you would prefer a paper copy either left in Church or posted through your letterbox give me a call.

St Helen's Church will remain open as usual during the day for private prayer and I will continue to say prayers on behalf of us all. Our efforts now go into being 'church' to each other and making sure our community is kept encouraged and supported. We can all keep in phone contact, send cards and notes and where appropriate leave gifts and necessary provisions on doorsteps. We are fortunate to be part of a community where we already watch over and help each other – this we will continue.

Should anyone who is staying at home, or feeling vulnerable or anxious, welcome a visit, phone-call or help with provisions please get in touch with me.

These are anxious times for everyone, but we face them together and firm in our faith in a God who continues to hold us in his everlasting arms.

I copy below the text of my sermon given on 15th March, which unbeknown at the time, turned out to be the last act of public worship in our Parish for the foreseeable future.

The text set for the day was Chapter 4 of St John's Gospel. I repeat it here because I believe it speaks into the anxiety we are all feeling, far better than a regular opening letter to our magazine.

(15th March Sermon overleaf)

“We are living in anxious times. We watch the news each day and see statistics climbing for a virus the world knew nothing of a few months ago. We are unsure what plans we should make and whether we can commit to the plans we have made. The whole world is feeling uncertain, vulnerable and anxious.

It is into this context that I approached the gospel reading set for today: the story of Jesus meeting the Samaritan woman at the well. Samaritans were deemed infectious by Jews because they were ritualistically unclean. Moreover, this is both a woman, and a woman who, rightly or wrongly, carries shame with her, good reasons, in the culture at that time, for Jesus to have nothing to do with her. This woman must have been uncertain, vulnerable and anxious

And yet, in the largest individual exchange Jesus has anywhere in the gospels, uncertainty, vulnerability and anxiousness are laid aside as the woman finds Hope. This woman goes to the well to get the water she needs to survive. Yet, interestingly, towards the end of the story, we hear she leaves without her water jug. It is a little like us leaving the chemist without the hand sanitiser we went looking for. But the Samaritan woman took away from the well something far more precious, something that ensures not just survival, but life, and life in all its fullness: living water. Jesus says: the water I ... give will become... a spring of water gushing up to eternal life.’

Several years ago on pilgrimage in Israel, Ian and I bought a sculpture in Bethlehem (see photo on page 7): Jesus and the Samaritan Woman at the Well. For me, what stands out is the body language of the characters. Jesus is open, turning towards the woman, his hand held out in invitation. Conversely, the woman is defensive, turning away as she clutches her water jar tight. At its heart, this story, is all about letting go and accepting God’s ever-present invitation into His love and life. Essentially that is what faith is all about. It is accepting that there is more to life than we see or know, accepting that we are not in full control of everything. One of the scary things about Covid-19 is realising how little we are in control and the uncertainty that lies ahead. Faith asks us to trust God..

The encounter between Jesus and the Woman at the Well shows us that God is always there, waiting for us to show up, holding out his hand in invitation - hoping we will bring to him all we are carrying and accept from him all he has to give. And when we do, like the Samaritan Woman, we find we are recognised, loved completely just as we are, and given, not just the water we need to survive, but the living water that enriches and enables a full and eternal life. Because that is what Jesus promises. He does not say all your problems will disappear. He does not say I will protect you from death. What he offers is His,

God's, presence. As his meeting with the Samaritan shows, He forgives the past, He is with us through all we currently face, and the future is in His safe hands

I hope you might revisit the whole of this bible reading and find personal reassurance and strength in these uncertain and anxious times, to trust in the God who doesn't just hold out his hand to us, he offers to hold us firm in his hands for all eternity.

For those who feel it sensible to stay safe at home for the time being, know our love and prayers are with you. We will continue to follow advice from the Church and Government to keep everyone as safe as possible which might mean we have to make further changes to how we do things. But whatever happens, we will carry on trusting and praying and worshipping God by helping each other as much as we can.

We may all be feeling uncertain, vulnerable and anxious. We may not, at present, be sharing the wine here in Church, but let us continue to come to God to drink the living water of eternal life, trusting that while the hand sanitiser and loo rolls, may run out on us, GOD NEVER WILL. Amen".

My prayers and God's blessing are with you

Georgina

The Woman at the Well

For Times of Worship at Home.

These are anxious times and to protect ourselves and others we may have to spend time at home that keeps us away from worship and other daily activities.

This could make us feel isolated and alone. But we are never alone.

The Bible tells us that: “It is the Lord who goes before you. He will be with you; He will not leave you or forsake you. Do not be dismayed.” (Deuteronomy 31:8).

God is always with us and we can remain part of our worshipping community even if we have to stay at home.

“For God has said, ‘I will not leave you or forsake you’ so we can confidently say, ‘The Lord is my helper; I will not fear’.” (Hebrews 13:5-6)

A Reflective Service: For Worship at Home.

We come from scattered lives to meet with God. We are never alone, nor do we pray alone. We join with others in this community and around the world. Let us recognise God’s presence with us now.

Keep a short silence, still your heart.

As God’s people we have gathered; Let us worship God now together,
Across the miles yet joined

Let us pray.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful people, and kindle in us the fire of your love; through Jesus Christ
our Lord, Amen.

The grace of God has dawned upon the world with healing for all. Let us come to him, in sorrow for our sins, seeking healing and salvation.

Keep a short silence, leave your sins at the cross

Confession:

God be gracious to us and bless us,
and make your face shine upon us:
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

May your ways be known on the earth,
your saving power among the nations:

Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.
You, Lord, have made known your salvation,
and reveal your justice in the sight of the nations:
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Absolution: May the Father forgive us by the death of the Son, and strengthen us to live in the power of The Spirit all our days. Amen.

*Find a bible reading for today on ENews, the Sunday readings opposite or the Church of England Website as below, or choose your own
Take a few minutes to reflect on your reading*

We affirm our faith in Jesus Christ the Son of God:

Though he was divine, he did not cling to equality with God, but made himself nothing. Taking the form of a slave, he was born in human likeness. He humbled himself and was obedient to death, even the death of the cross.
Therefore, God has raised him on high, and given him the name above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, and every voice proclaim that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

cf Philippians 2.6-11

We pray in the quiet of our hearts: Lord, meet us in the silence and hear our prayer.

Silence for prayer is kept

Pray for yourself in your isolation, that God would sit with you. Pray for others in their loneliness, anxiety and suffering. Pray for all affected by illness and our emergency services. Pray for our country. Pray for the world.

Finish with the prayer that Jesus, Our Saviour, taught us: The Lord's Prayer

Silence is kept

May God give to us, and all for whom we pray, His blessings of comfort peace, light and joy, in this world and the next Amen

Let us bless the Lord Thanks be to God.

“The Things He Carried” by Stephen Cottrell. A book review for Easter

This is another book from the Rector’s extensive collection. It is a meditation on the crucifixion of Jesus, trying to go deeper into the nature of the burdens he carried to and on the cross. It is a powerful book, short enough to read in one go, but it leaves a lasting impact on the reader. The author – who is the new Archbishop of York – opens our eyes to what it meant for Jesus to suffer as he did, not just in a physical sense but also emotionally, spiritually and mentally. He invites us to stand beneath the cross and consider anew what happened there. He brings home the enormity of it and as such this is a good book to read in Holy Week.

This is a work of the imagination, but based on scripture. It will take you out of your comfort zone and make you think not just about how much Jesus carried on the cross, and why, but also the different burdens he had to shoulder: the weight of the cross, the sharpness of the crown of thorns, the hopes of God, our sorrows and our sins. It is overwhelming at times and yet there is gratitude and wonder that He was able to carry all this for us and hope at the end that God’s purpose was fulfilled.

There are questions at the end of each chapter to aid contemplation, either individually or in groups. The text itself does that too though so the book can be read and used in different ways to suit the reader.

Events Cancelled

Sadly because of the restrictions placed on us by the threat of Covid-19 all meetings and events have been cancelled for the foreseeable future. This includes our Lent Group, Afternoon Tea and Reflection Group.

Our Easter services will not now be able to take place, but I shall put together resources for Holy Week and Easter that can be used at home.

The Celebratory Parish Service is also now suspended and I am awaiting clarification on how and when we proceed with the APCM but it will not take place on the date, or in the way advertised.

Planned events

We are uncertain how long restrictions will be in place. Advertised below are events in May and June but please keep in touch as these too may have to change.

Guest Performance Evensong St Helen's Church, Sunday May 3rd 6:30pm

IF SERVICES HAVE RESUMED BY THEN we welcome the return of Vox Vocavit, a choral group that specialises in Evensong services after their very successful service with us last year. Evensong is one of the oldest services in our church and this will be both a spiritually uplifting service and an occasion to relish beautiful and ancient prayers and music.

Julian's Ordination to the Priesthood Chester Cathedral Saturday June 20th at 5pm

Our Curate Julian will be priested at this uplifting service which lasts about two hours. All are welcome but because the Cathedral is always full there is a ticketing system. If you would like to go to support Julian, then please either speak to him or email him about tickets: revjulianosborne@gmail.com

June 21st First Services and Brunch Done Room. All Welcome

Having been priested the evening before, Julian will celebrate his first Eucharists on Sunday June 21st at 9am at St Thomas and 10am at St Helen. And to mark this very significant step we invite everyone to join together and congratulate Julian and his family over a light brunch that will be served immediately after the St Helen's service (around 11am) in the Done Room.

Finally and importantly. KEEP IN TOUCH

Things are changing fast and we cannot guarantee that all events will be able to go ahead as planned – do check if you are unsure. You can sign up for ENews by emailing admin@tarporleyparish.co.uk We will endeavour to update our website regularly <http://www.tarporleyparishchurch.org/> so please check that, or if still uncertain call me.

Whether you need to stay at home or not it's important to keep in touch. If you would like a chat over the phone, or a visit, or if we can help with shopping or practical issues please contact me
